NEED OF CANADIAN HISTORY

Writing in The Press Bulletin on "The Need for a Wider Study of Canadian History," A. L. Burt, professor of history says: "Perhaps the best approach to this subject is through a homely and familiar illustration. One of the commonest catch-phrases in the west has been 'This is a young man's country.' No one questions the fact or its value. But it has a certain drawback which has been severely felt. During the very hard times, from which we hope we are emerging, it was often observed that this country needed was heart, that more serious than the lack of rain was the lack of courage. Now, if there had been a larger proportion of old people in the country to say to the young: 'Oh, don't be discouraged, we've seen the like of this before, you'll pull through all right,' the effect would have been comforting and bracing. In short, the people of the west have missed the steady influence of experience, of a knowledge of the past."

CANADIAN NEWS IN BRIEF

"After visiting every country of importance in North and South America, I am convinced that Canada is far the best country for people to migrate to at the present time," declared Sir John Pitka, former Russian admiral, on his return to Winnipeg after an extensive tour of the west. Sir John intends, on his return to Estonia, to urge his people to come to Canada in search of better homes and living conditions.

An increase of approximately 100 per cent over the corresponding period of last year, is shown by immigration figures for the first nine months of 1922, according to the official figures issued from Ottawa. During the first nine months of this year 106,973 new entrants were brought to Canada and it is anticipated that of this number fully 100,000 will be permanent settlers.

More than 3,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat were exported to the United States during October as against 1,716,000 bushels in October of last year. Total October exporting of wheat from Canada were 29,670,547 bushels as against 37,339,074 bushels in October, 1922.

Practically all of the services of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine have done well during the present season, according to an announcement made by Capt.
E. E. Tedford, marine superintendent. Business is good not only on the ocean routes but also on the Great Lakes.
Capt. Tedford stated, "our smaller vessels have been employed everywhere to good purpose. The service to Australia and New Zealand has shown particularly good results."

Soldier settlers in the western Provinces are making good and are optimistic as to the future. The majority of Saskatchewan and Alberta soldier settlers have already made this year's payments on their land and a large number have paid up arrears which in many cases were not expected this year.

Optimism, based on a splendid October showing of the Canadian National Railways and also on the good prospects for the balance of the year, was expressed by Sir Henry W. Thornton, chairman and president of the board of the Canadian National on his arrival in Winnipeg lately. The grain movement, Sir Henry stated, had exceeded all previous records; the net earnings of the company during October showed an increase of over 5,000,000 as compared with the same month of last year, and two of the best months of the year were yet to be entered upon.

"I have no complaints to make and am pleased to say that I have received every consideration and assistance and have been able to find employment without any trouble whatever. If a man is willing to work there is absolutely no reason why he should not do so as far as Canada and the West is concerned," writes C. S. Roberts of Toronto, a British harvester who has returned to Winnipeg after spending some months in the harvest fields. Mr. Roberts' letter was in answer to some of the complaints voiced by Old Country harvesters who told of finding little work or sympathy because of their inexperience.

Thousands of good farmers in the lost provinces of Hungary are anxious to move to Canada to make new homes for themselves and their families, states Dr.
Stephen Dohy, commissioner-embassy of the Hungarian government, who is in Western Canada now looking into prospects.

Residents of all the Western Provinces were among a party of nearly 200 persons who left Winnipeg for the Canadian National train to embark on the White Star liners "Regina" and "Antonia" at Montreal to spend their Winter holidays in Great Britain.

Fifty-six cases of whitethigh eggs for "planting" in the lakes near Port Arthur and Port Frances, were carried westward from Toronto over the Canadian National Railways last week-end.

IT WAS NO JOKE

The New York Press tells this one on Henry W. Grady, whose statue in Marquette street, it says, recalling a story of his career in Rome, Ga., as editor of a newspaper whose struggles for existence were hard indeed. "Dolph and West," Rounsaville, big merchants, declined to advertise, notwithstanding Grady's persistent entreaties. "We don't need to advertise," said "West," senior partner. "It won't do any good.
Nobody reads advertisements, anyway."
"Don't read 'em?" cried Grady. "I'll show you." In the next day's paper, following one of the editor's brilliant articles, was this notice: "Wanted—Immediately, two thousand cats for which we pay fifty cents each. J. W.
Rounsaville & Bro." It rained, sounded and belled cats. It was the town's sole cats to sell. Farmers labored them from the country. The railroads brought them by freight and express. They arrived in sacks, bags, boxes and barrels. "West" and "Dolph," who had read the advertisement, were nearly paralyzed with fear.
It was the town's business to stand about the corner of the store and enjoy the fun. Grady himself leaned up against a telegraph pole splitting with laughter and crying with every fresh load. "Nobody reads advertisements, eh? Nobody reads 'em?" The Rounsavilles were glad to compromise on a contract for a year's advertising.

If you become disabled what about your Life Insurance?

"I HAVE always hesitated about increasing my life insurance because of the responsibility I would have to assume for the premiums," said a man who experiences a considerable delay. "I always pictured myself in some situation, perhaps disabled through an accident, where I might be unable to pay the premiums." But you may now insure against this possibility of future inability to pay your premiums. For a small additional charge the Mutual Life of Canada will issue your policy subject to a clause which provides that in case of total and permanent disability the Company will waive further premiums.
This is not all. Upon approval of proofs of disability, the Company will not only waive future premiums, but will pay $10 a month per $1000 of assurance, so long as total disability continues.
And further, if the policyholder should die by accident, the Company will pay double the amount of Life insurance named in the policy. These features are optional in all old employee Mutual policies if issued before 15 or under $5 years of age.
